THOSE FACTS.

The brief but terse and comprehensive card which we publish to-day, from one of our most esteemed citizens and a member of the Cemetery Board, affords the most direct and explicit confirmation of our statements with regard to the recent payment of $3,000 by the Mayor's order for a receiving-tomb at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. Mr. Robin's effort to make the Cemetery Board appear as endorsing the payment of the money without due compliance with the conditions of the Order, is therefore effectually disposed of. Another of Mr. Robin's peculiar statements, to which we inadvertently omitted to call attention, was with reference to the Bishop's letter, of which he says:

"The above document signed by the Bishop in his official capacity, was unanimously accepted by the City Council, ordered on file and made a part of the city record."

Now, if Mr Robin was really anxious not to publish well-meaning and fair-minded citizens he was quite as unfortunate in the wording of the above as in stating that the city had appropriated $3,000 for Mr. Hope, "a private corporation." The intent of the above language is obviously to convince the reader that the City Council considered the Bishop's letter and unanimously accepted it as satisfactory. But Mr. Robin knows that the City Council never did this except that letter, or do anything whatever in relation to it, except the urgent and repeated solicitation of Mr. Robin to have it "read and ordered on file," as is shown by the official instruments. Had others understood that the gentleman's request to have the paper simply placed on file was in order that he might represent that its terms had been "unanimously accepted," they might possibly have kindly put back to the Mayor, to whom it was addressed. The filing of the paper was a matter of courtesy and of no other possible significance.

A despatch now elsewhere in the Tribune reports an interview with Mr. Foster, of Connecticut, and gives another purporting to have been held with the reporter of a different paper. If the two statements, or some such letter was written and that Mr. Foster never saw it until it appeared in print, are correct, something very like nothing the U. S. mails would seem to have been perpetrated. The attempt to make a question over the letter is very futile, as the gentleman had a perfect right to address his views on politics to Mr Blaine or any body else in a confidential letter, and his opinion of the strength of the anti-Catholic feeling is simply that of an individual. That New Jersey ought to feel warm on the subject is not a matter of surprise after the notorious attempts of the priests to interfere in the recent election in that state.

Mr. Clover having declined, on account of private business, to accept the appointment in place of Henderson, as special counsel for the Government in the whiskey trials, James U. Brookhead, Esq., one of the leading lawyers of St. Louis has been appointed and has accepted the position. He is pronounced Democrat and as strongly opposed to the Administration as Henderson though without the latter's personal animosity. A N. Y. Herald reporter writes: "Attorney General Pierrepont in conversation this evening upon the subject of the prosecutions said the President was firm in his demand for counsel who would be absolutely fearless in the discharge of the duties attending this office and would not be cumbered with anything short of the most vigorous and impartial prosecution of the work intrusted by the government to its hands."

The work of Reform Digs. Washington dispatches inform us that by adjourning over until Tuesday the Democrats have prevented the introduction of any indifferent bill and resolutions Monday, every Representative having an opportunity to present any business on Monday. The firm determination to move cautiously and to take no false step at the commencement of their rule will probably prevent the transaction of any business in the House until after the Christmas Holidays." The Democratic leaders seem to be afraid of somebody.

The fear whom some one has been so effective to the intelligent and discernible Democrats in our city, actually boasts that it could hold every word and letter of the portion of the Message relating to the school question, as fully and completely as did The Whig or any other paper. And yet it gravely and gravely misquoted in italics in its editorial columns that very portion in extenso for nearly two columns of denunciation. The excuses which admit it deeper in the bog are certainly not intended for the intelligent members of its party.

The general consolidation of Internal Revenue Districts, throughout the United States, by the President, Maine is divided into three districts, instead of two, as heretofore stated. The First District is to remain as heretofore organized, with Frank Rollins, Collector; the Second, and Third united to be known as the Second with Charles J. Talbot, Collector; the Fourth and Fifth united, to be known as the Fourth, with Hiram Ruggles, Collector.

There is considerable speculation as to who will get the Chairmanship of the Committee on Military Affairs, as there is no military man of any prominence on the Democratic side of the new House, who served in the Union Army. It is not thought expedient just yet to place an ex-Confederate officer in that position, although Gordon, is on the Military Committee in the Senate.

It is intimated in Washington official circles in response to suggestions that it is possible that the Democratic House of Representatives may be disposed to investigate the circumstances attending the whiskey ring trials; that every fact on the part of the Government will bear the fullest examination; and an investigation by the direction of Congress would be far from unwelcome.

Here are the significant headings to a recent telegram in the Democratic Boston Post:—RIOT IN MISSISSIPPI. ANOTHER COLLISION BETWEEN THE WHITES AND BLACKS—SEVEN NEGROES KILLED BUT NO WHITES HURT."

It is said that two prominent Northern Democrats have already given notice that they will not abide by the decision of the House party caucus unless that decision accords with their own views.

THE ABUSE OF PARTISAN CRITICISM.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

If ever a work of reform was undertaken with a single eye to the public interest, the prosecution of the Whiskey Ring was that work. No question of partisan expediency was allowed to interfere with its progress, and no party credit was demanded for the performance of a duty which the Administration owed to the people. The work was undertaken in a spirit which commended itself to the support of the people without distinction of party, and those who had accepted the responsibility for its success were entitled to expect that it would be judged by a standard of common fairness, unwarped by partisan prepossession or personal dislike. There would be an end to all nobility of motive in public life if there were no times when an Administration could claim to be judged as the depositary of the delegated sovereignty of the whole people, rather than as the creature of a political party. Fortunately for the future of great reforms, the sober common sense of the people cannot be affected by perverted and captious partisan criticism when applied to matters whose significance is so obvious as the attitude of the Administration toward the Whiskey Ring.

That, however, does not make the course of certain Democratic organs and their Liberal allies any less shameful. The avidity with which these sheets have pounced upon a removal of Henderson as counsel in the St. Louis case, and have distorted the meaning of a very simple and proper act in evidence of how anxiously they were an attempt to discredit the Government course of the Administration in this matter. "But why furnish them with this pretext?" is the cry of those who profess a hypocritical admiration for the course of the President and the Secretary of the Treasury, while secretly hoping that the work will not be carried. Simply because it is not the business of any Government to sacrifice both dignity and reputation, lest some corrupt newspaper critic should find occasion to accuse it. And further, because, if Mr. Henderson's grossly unprofessional display of personal malice had been allowed to pass unnoticed, the same class of critics would have made that apparent for declaring that the implications were unanswerable.

We are told that Henderson was removed because he furnished the Grand Jury with proofs sufficient to procure the indictment of Gen. Babcock. Yet the same Grand Jury took pains to convey to the President assurances of their warm admiration for his course in regard to these prosecutions, and of their complete confidence in his official purity and ability. Mr. Henderson went out of his way to suggest doubts as to the President had been either privy or faithful to his matter, and the Grand Jury necessarily censured the counsel for the prosecution in thus contradicting these insinuations. Those gentlemen evidently thought the vindication of the character of the Executive of somewhat more importance than the claims of any particular lawyer to continue to serve the Government while engaged in reviling its head. They had the best possible means of knowing whether the President had any personal interest in screening Gen. Babcock, and if their letter means anything at all it is a most emphatic declaration that he had not. The Grand Jury indict the President's private Secretary, warmly endorse the course of the President, and administer a rebuke to the leading counsel for the prosecution, and no one ventures to question the perfect sincerity of their motives or the wisdom of their action. The Administration adopts the only course open to it of rebuking the insult of its paid counsel, and indeed bends to instruct the prosecution in plainer and less able, while having still less political affiliation with the Republican party. And yet certain journals place so slight an estimate upon the intelligence and sense of fairness of the people as to ask them to believe that the prosecution of the St. Louis Whiskey Ring has broken down. One obvious correction to this style of partisan criticism is the fact that it does infinitely more hard to its authors than to those against whom it is directed.

THE CEMETERY MATTER.

CARD FROM A MEMBER OF THE CEMETERY BOARD.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

In your article to-day on "The Cemetery Matter" you have given a true history of the case.

That Alderman Robin, so long connected with the City Government, should have made statements so far from the truth would lead us to conclude that he has a very much less acquaintance with its affairs than the public have given him credit for. He ought to have known that not a single dollar of the City's money was ever paid to Mt. Hope corporation.

The Cemetery Board thought it wise to have a receiving tomb on the West Side to accommodate our three cemeteries on that side.

In all the meetings of the Board it has always been contemplated that no money should be paid and the City had a conveyance of the right to the tomb.

On no other condition would we have recommended the payment of a dollar.

You may judge of our surprise, Courier of it through your paper) that the money had been paid, in direct opposition to the advice of the City Solicitor, and, as we believe, without legal authority, as the conditions of the Order have not been complied with.

The Order says the money shall be paid "Provided that any person to be buried in the City of Bangor shall have the right, etc., etc.

Is any one so simple-minded as to believe that the letter of the Bishop gives a legal right? F. S. W.

Bangor, Dec. 13th, 1875.

The crafty Argus in condensing its despatches, carefully condensed out of sight the fact that the Robbins just convicted for swindling in Rockland, is the publisher of the abusive Democratic paper in that city. It is awful when a Democrat gets so low that the Argus is ashamed of him.

A special meeting of the St. Patrick's Society of Montreal was called for last evening to express indignation because the bells of the French Catholic churches were not tolled during the recent funeral processions of two Irish priests.

IT MAKES THEM SQUEAL!

But We Can't Help It!

Our immense assortment of New Style Clothing for MEN, BOYS or CHILDREN, selling at such

WONDERFUL LOW PRICES,

Strikes directly to the very hearts of our puny competitors.

We Rise to Explain.

We do not claim to be any wonderful Gen. who comes for the benefit of the public alone, at a sacrifice to himself; we are simply

Wholesale Manufacturers of Clothing,

Who make a specialty of getting up this fall an assortment of NICE FITTING, WELL-MADE, NEW STYLE Garments as can be found on EARTH.

OUR SYSTEM.

We look about through the different cities in the United States, and when we find a place where a LIVE HOUSE is needed, WE SETTLE and at once begin to

Break Down High Prices,

By Selling First Class Clothing at Reasonable Prices.

HOW WE CAN DO IT.

1st. We do not want for capital, therefore we can purchase goods at very low figures, exemplifying the fact that goods well bought are half sold.

2d. We buy all our cloth directly of the Mills, after making the entire productions of two or three mills at once.

3d. We manufacture all our own Clothing, employing only experienced workmen in every department, producing nothing but FIRST CLASS WORK.

4th. We make such immense quantities at a time that the cost of production is reduced to the smallest possible figure, and we are thereby enabled to sell at very low prices, and still realize a fair profit on the cost of manufacturing.

5th. We make such immense quantities at a time that the cost of production is reduced to the smallest possible figure, and we are thereby enabled to sell at very low prices, and still realize a fair profit on the cost of manufacturing.

6th. And last but not least, we sell for CASH ONLY at 10 per cent added to the cost of manufacturing. That's why we Defy Competition!

And when our POOR, PETTY COMPETITORS cry "SHODDY AND JEW CLOTHING" they only cast reflections on the judgement of the citizens of Bangor, which is sure to recoil to their own destruction, sooner or later. Their cheap talk resembles as a FLY.

IT TICKLES, BUT DON'T HURT.

The more they talk the better we are pleased. IT ADVERTISES US more than they imagine. We have been through just such transactions before and was immensely benefitted by it.

SO TOOT YOUR HORN

as long as possible, only don't "PEG" out too soon.

One Thousand Dollars!

We will give $1000.00 to any Charitable Institution in Maine that the Mayor of Bangor may designate, if the prices marked on each garment in our entire stock sold by us are not FAR BELOW the prices marked on similar garments of equal in quality, of any other dealer in Bangor.

TALK IS CHEAP.

NOW EITHER PUT UP OR SHUT UP!

We wish the public to distinctly understand that we have the LARGEST and BEST assortment of MENS', BOYS', and CHILDRENS'

READY MADE CLOTHING

to be found in Bangor, and that our prices are FAR BELOW any other dealer in the city.

ONE PRICE TO ALL!

No Bantering, No Jewing, No Misrepresentations! Truth Throughout!

If any person finds that the garment purchased is not what was represented or the same can be bought LOWER elsewhere, RETURN IT AND GET YOUR MONEY. REMEMBER THE PLACE
